

Oklahoma State Medical Association CME Objectives for 2007 Annual CME Meeting

DAVID S. RUSSELL, MD
PRESIDENT

BRUCE L. STORMS, MD
IMMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT

JAMES R. CLAFLIN, MD
PRESIDENT-ELECT

LEE E. SCHOEFFLER, MD
VICE-PRESIDENT

K.A. MEHTA, MD
SECRETARY-TREASURER

SHERRI S. BAKER, MD
SPEAKER
HOUSE OF DELEGATES

STEVEN B. KATSIS, MD
VICE-SPEAKER
HOUSE OF DELEGATES

JOHN A. ROBINSON, MD
CHAIR
BOARD OF TRUSTEES

DAVID W. GRIFFITHS, MD
VICE-CHAIR
BOARD OF TRUSTEES

W. FRANK PHELPS, MD
ACTING EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

KATHLEEN A. MUSSON, CAE
ASSOC. EXEC. DIRECTOR

October 2, 2006

1. Patient Safety: “Disruptive Physician” – Speaker: Larry Veltman, MD
 - a. Recognize the components and spectrum of disruptive physician behavior
 - b. Understand how disruptive behavior can affect the organization and increase the risk for errors
 - c. Recognize that the organization in conjunction with the medical staff can eliminate the behavior
2. Patient Safety: “Informed Consent” - Speaker: Alex Bednar, JD
 - a. Be aware of new changes in the law regarding informed consent
 - b. Understand the importance of documenting informed consent in patient charts
 - c. Be aware of new case law regarding situations resulting in liability for physicians
 - d. Obtain examples of language to incorporate into consent documents with your patients
3. “OB/GYN Patient Safety” – Speaker: Larry Veltman, MD
 - a. Describe the current environment for professional liability in obstetrics
 - b. Describe liability issues associated with the use of oxytocin and induction of labor
 - c. Strategies for reducing adverse outcomes during the second stage of labor
 - d. Become aware of the potential for injuries during laparoscopic surgical procedures
 - e. Examine the importance of good communications as a tool to reduce liability in the labor and delivery unit
4. “Sepsis” – Speaker: V. Ramgopal, MD
 - a. Be able to identify a systemic inflammatory response
 - b. How to properly document and code for sepsis
5. “State of the State’s Health Update” – Speaker: Mike Crutcher, MD, Oklahoma Commissioner of Health
 - a. Be aware of the major causes of death in Oklahoma and how we compare with other states
 - b. Be aware of excess mortality demographically and geographically and what efforts are required to improve mortality statistics
 - c. Be aware of where the excess risk to poor health is in the Oklahoma population and what long-term efforts are needed to intervene in that risk
 - d. Be aware of what must be done to move Oklahoma out of the bottom 10 states for the leading health indicators

6. “Insomnia: New Advances In Non Drug Therapy” – Speaker: Murali Krishna, MD, President Integris Mental Health, James L. Hall, Jr., Center for Mind, Body, and Spirit
 - a. Recognize insomnia and how it affects one’s health
 - b. Know what starts insomnia and why it persists
 - c. Learn about treating insomnia without medications
 - d. Learn principles of cognitive therapy, life style modifications, and relaxation therapy approaches to insomnia
7. “Agitated Dementia” – Speakers: Richard Hartman, MD & Jenny Boyer, MD
 - a. Recognize common signs and symptoms of agitation
 - b. Identify common causes of agitation in demented patients
 - c. Discuss several therapeutic options, including non-pharmacologic options, for the management of agitation in dementia
8. “The EMR Revolution: How a Small Office Made The Transition To EMR” – Speaker: Chris Herndon, MD
 - a. Understand the benefits of EMR
 - b. See the benefits of a patient portal
 - c. Appreciate the ROI
9. “Retirement Issues Affecting Physicians” – Speakers: Cori Loomis, JD and W. Frank Phelps, MD
 - a. Understand that there are a number of legal and business issues that must be addressed as part of the retirement process
 - b. Identify legal issues that must be resolved prior to retirement
 - c. Identify business issues that must be resolved prior to retirement
 - d. Know what steps to take to resolve legal and business issues prior to retirement
 - e. Start planning retirement early
 - f. Plan the pace of the actual retirement
 - g. Set goals for each retirement year
10. “Responsible Pain Management In Clinical Practice” – Speaker: Edward Covington, MD, Ralph Richter, MD, Mario R. Morenas, MD, and Steven Gaede, MD
 - a. Review diagnosis and implications of nociceptive, neuropathic and visceral pain
 - b. Identify available and future management strategies for patients experiencing various types of pain
 - c. Discuss the efficacy and complications of pharmacologic and non-pharmacologic treatment options
 - d. Review legal and ethical responsibilities of physicians managing patients with chronic pain disorders.

11. “Alternative Medicine In Women” – Speaker: Lawrence Kincheloe, MD
 - a. Under which alternative therapies have value and which one are hype
 - b. Be able to understand the use of herbal therapies
12. “Complementary and Alternative Medicine” – Speaker: Laurence Altshuler, MD
 - a. Identify the benefits and pitfalls of alternative methods
 - b. Review the current evidence-based research on alternative methods
 - c. Describe the beneficial clinical applications of manual therapy, Chinese medicine, herbal medicine and mind body methods
 - d. Discuss the applications of alternative methods for their patients
13. “Migraine Headaches” – Speaker: Andrew Gin, MD
 - a. Review the most recent recommendations for evaluating migraine headaches
 - b. Review the most current recommendations for treatment
14. “Value Based Diabetes Care” – Speaker: John Muchmore, MD, PhD
 - a. Know and understand principles and logistics of inpatient glycemic management
 - b. Know and understand benefits of inpatient glycemic management
15. “Getting Paid For Prevention In The Office” – Speaker: Zack Bechtol, MD
 - a. Have confidence with the financial viability of patient centered preventive services
 - b. Learn ways to create effective prevention plan for your office
 - c. Understand the staffing changes that are necessary to make prevention happen