

Implement Childhood Weight Management Into Your Practice
Ashley Weedn, MD, MPH, FAAP
January 10, 2018

Post-test Questions

1. Which of the following measures is most appropriate in assessing overweight and obesity in children ages 2-18 years old?
  - A. Clinical impression
  - B. Weight for age percentile
  - C. Body mass index
  - D. Body mass index percentile
2. Which of the following laboratory tests are recommended for an 11 year-old child identified as obese?
  - A. Fasting lipid panel
  - B. ALT
  - C. TSH
  - D. A& B only
  - E. All of the above
3. Which of the following are important strategies for reducing weight bias in your office?
  - A. Understanding the complexity of obesity
  - B. Using patient first language
  - C. Focusing on behavior change goals instead of weight loss
  - D. All of the above
4. For children on Oklahoma Medicaid, "obesity" is a reimbursable diagnosis for Both physicians and dietitians?
  - A. True
  - B. False